

THE SWEET LITTLE KITTY OF THE KINGDOM

Cathy Egan Moinester
Author and Photographer

All Rights Reserved © 2018 Cathy Egan
Cathy Egan Moinester - Author and Photographer
www.cathyeganmoinester.com

1st Printing 2019 Fleet Printing

For additional copies contact:
info@cathyeganmoinester.com

Sweet Dewey-Cayce The Stray that Found its Way

A message from the author.

Life has a way of chasing you around until it eventually ends up in your lap. Such is a saga I began when a little butterscotch boy literally landed at my feet. Left outside to fend for himself, I was the one that fate decided should have the experience of being totally entranced and ruled-yes ruled (hence the kingdom title of this little book) by this four-legged, inescapable bundle of innate charm.

Regardless of the fact that I had never been with, owned, or lived with this type of life form; I was nonetheless chosen to partake of the experience. Learning to accept the challenge gracefully including the 4 A.M. call to breakfast and 9 P.M. lights out; I swiftly got involved in photography so I could capture the essence of the joy I felt. I hope you enjoy it too!

Cathy

A Letter of Love

Dear Lil Dewey Cayce:

You came into my life like a breeze,
Sprinkled it with your special brand of sweetness-that caressed my heart.

In so many ways you touched my soul...too many to count—
Opening me up to wellsprings of compassion for myself and all those around me.

I express my heartfelt appreciation for always blessing my soul by your mere presence and your incredible essence of being.

These sentiments are offered for others to read as an entre into the world of pure grace and hope;
a world that you taught me is simple in its origin and far reaching in its influence.

To all those that journey and seek guidance and learning in this lifetime, this story is offered as a reminder and an inspiration to warm your heart.

Introduction

There was throughout the land
This orange fluff ball of the clan
The Sweet Little Kitty of the Kingdom.

Each day the sun would shine
The moon would rise
And The Sweet Little Kitty of the Kingdom
Would show his face to the world at large.

Or not!

Daily Life in the Kingdom

There were times when the advisors
Would seek kitty out
Searching for answers
Searching for clues.

Kitty would keep his advisors close and respond after much studious consideration:
“Keep searching...”

About Work

Wanting to set a good example for all Kittie kept a watchful eye out for
Any misdeeds or laziness.

He recommended that everyone
Take part in kingdom activities
Including chores and set a goal to
Be a good example
For others to follow.

About Play

Although all work and no play...

Well ya gotta plan the play –
and that takes a lot of down time.

A whole lot of down time that is –

A dedicated 'lot of down time...

Spiritual Life in the Kingdom – Meditation

Upon his recommendation

All in the kingdom

Began to meditate...

Dewey – Dewey – Lama Lama (it helps to have a basket).

Meditation can be rather exhausting however.

Trying more Spiritual Practice

Praying is a way to start the day. Me wrapped around my prayer shawl in sweet repose.

Sometimes you just have to hide away for a while. If someone finds you, then simply pretend that you cannot be seen and they will get the hint!

Contemplation

Is encouraged in the Kingdom and new ideas can pop up anytime.

Staying Connected

Being involved in life means trying very hard to be included.

Life Lessons in the Kingdom

You have to know that there is a time and a place for everything.

The box is either half empty or half full.

On Friendships

Buddies are forever.

Friends watch over friends.

Kingdom Advice for Living Well

Be colorful.

Cathy

And then there are the ducks. . .

About the Author

Cathy Egan Moinester is an experienced writer with over 11 years of full-time employment as Senior Proposal Writer with a Fortune 100 global corporation. Her specialty is creating materials for new markets, educational training manuals, and start-up company marketing profiles. Her background includes creating and managing all communications for computer trade associations where she held Executive Director, and Regional Marketing Management positions and Public/Community Relations Specialist.

She is a Magna cum Laude graduate of Rutgers University with a B.A. in Sociology and a minor in Psychology. Her background includes extensive training in personal relations, spirituality, negotiation, diverse cultural relations and philosophies.

Combining her extensive training and professional experience with worldwide travel gives her writing the authenticity and variability which bonds with the reader; enhancing their experience and instigating their desire for more. Semi-retired, she devotes her creative endeavors to combining the technical with the psycho-social to deliver meaningful text on a wide range of subjects.

She is aided in her writing and photographic adventures by her main advice giver and confidant, Dewey-Cayce – a 20-pound orange tabby, previously residing in the wild, that found its way into her heart and mind when he adopted her.